

Whakamua (looking forward)

This draft plan provides the Ngāti Kuri Trust Board and iwi with the strategies to invest in future opportunities that will deliver greater prosperity and influence for ngā uri o Ngāti Kuri.

It is our responsibility to exercise tino rangatiratanga, to protect our cultural identity and authority as kaitiaki of our rohe, and to build the capability of our whānau, hapū and marae so we achieve optimal quality of life.

The focus of our planned activities will be:

- Protect our culture and tribal identity
- Develop relationships that build socio-economic independence
- Retain customary authority and protect our resources

Te Whakakitenga (our vision)

Ngāti Kuri are self-sufficient, strong and thriving.

Ma te huruhuru, ka rere te manu me whakahoki mai te mana ki te whānau, hapū, iwi.

(adorn the bird with feathers so it can fly and return the mana to us)

Te Ahunga (our mission)

To strengthen and uphold the health and well-being of Ngāti Kuri whānau, hapū and iwi.

Nāu te rourou, nāku te rourou, ka ora ai te Iwi.

(together we will get there)
